WELCOME TO MEMPHIS!

Shalom Y'all and Welcome to Memphis!

We are thrilled that you are here for the 2018 JCCs of North America Biennial. Memphians take tremendous pride in our city and all that it has to offer. While here, you'll be able to take advantage of the wonderful culture and community of Memphis.

The 2018 Biennial promises to keep you engaged with insightful speakers and plenaries. Outside of the convention center walls, please take advantage of some of Memphis' finest attractions, restaurants, and our rich Southern and Jewish history. We are Home of the Blues, Graceland, Beale Street, the National Civil Rights Museum, and so many more must-see spots. Part of the programming during your stay includes our Host City Event at Graceland on Sunday night, May 6. Prepare to be dazzled by all things Elvis while you are enjoying a delicious bar-b-que feast! We are also excited to welcome you to the Blues Hall of Fame Museum on Monday evening, May 7, as well as engage you with a walking tour of Memphis' Pinch District with famed Memphis historian Jimmy Ogle also on the evening of Monday, May 7. For anyone who wants to make their way out east, we would love to show off the Memphis Jewish Community Center, the "living room" of the Memphis Jewish community for the past 60 years.

This Host Community Guide highlights a number of our favorite destinations in Memphis that cater to the desires of all who visit here. You will find attractions, neighborhoods, and all types of restaurants. Thank you to our Host Committee, especially our Hospitality Chairs, Susan Chase and Cindy Finestone, for putting so much time and effort into creating this guide; Judy and Larry Moss and Laurie and Harry Samuels, our Host City Event Chairs; Robin Orgel and Jed Miller, our Volunteer Chairs; and Ilysa Wertheimer, our Entertainment Chair.

If you have any questions while you are here please feel free to stop by our Hospitality Desk at the Convention Center or ask one of our many blue-shirted volunteers!

On behalf of the Memphis Jewish Community Center's Board of Directors and professional staff, we hope you enjoy your stay in Memphis.
