RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

For Children of Jewish Service Members

Accessible, high-quality, no-cost Jewish education for grades 2–12 for this school year (2025-2026) is now available to children of active-duty military personnel serving in locations around the world, allowing school-age children and teens to engage in substantive, ongoing Jewish learning.

Courses are offered online, regardless of religious background or affiliation, using accredited and award-winning curricula developed by the Lookstein Center and taught by expert Jewish educators.
