CONNECTING JEWISH MILITARY FAMILIES WITH JCCs

A signature program of  JCC Association of North America

The Jewish Community Center of Greater Raleigh welcomes Jewish military families.

As a JWB Passport facility, we can help you forge connections at the JCC and in the Greater Raleigh Jewish community.

JOIN THE JCC

JCC membership is free for active-duty military personnel and their family members living in the same household. Membership includes:

- Member pricing on fee-for-service programs and those that have a different price for the general community
- Invitations to free, member-only events and programs
- Access to the pool from Memorial Day through Labor Day
- Eligibility to register for the JRays Swim Team (additional fees apply)
- Access to the Kadis Family Playground
- Use of sports courts for open play (basketball, pickleball)
- Early access to registration for camp and other activities and programs

A WARM HANDOFF WHEN YOU HAVE A PCS

Our membership manager will reach out to the JCC/Federation in your new community to help connect you and your family with resources, programs, and activities.

CONNECT TO THE JEWISH COMMUNITY

A JCC membership also provides access to year-round Jewish activities in the greater Raleigh community.

Sample events on this year's calendar include:

- A Jewish Film series, and other yearly opportunities, in partnership with the North Carolina Museum of Art
- Meet-ups and community-wide events, including "Shabbat Across Greater Raleigh" in partnership with the Jewish Federation of Greater Raleigh
- A jigsaw puzzle competition
- An annual communal challah bake
- A Yom Ha'Atzmaut celebration of Israel's independence
- Pool parties throughout the summer, including 4th of July and Labor Day
- A dreidel exchange for Hanukkah
